Deputy Minister Tshwete to visit Phillip Mtywaku Senior Secondary School in Peelton

18 January 2018

The Deputy Minister of Water and Sanitation, Pam Tshwete, will visit Phillip Mtywaku Senior Secondary School in Peelton, near King William's Town on Thursday, 25 January 2018.

This visit is part of the Back to School campaign, a government initiative to engage learners about the importance of education and prepare them for the 2018 school calendar.

The Department of Water and Sanitation will use this opportunity to also educate the learners about the importance of saving water and the importance of washing hands at all times to avoid the spread of preventable diseases.

The event will be held as follows:

Date : Thursday, 25 January 2018

Venue : Phillip Mtywaku Senior Secondary School, Peelton, King William's Town

Time : 09h00
