MEDIA STATEMENT

Standing Committee on Appropriations to conduct oversight visit in KwaZulu-Natal

20 June 2017

The Standing Committee on Appropriations (SCOA) will visit KwaZulu-Natal from 26 – 30 June 2017 to assess progress on the roll-out of bulk water infrastructure and the provision of sanitation services as well as bucket eradication programme.

The aim of the visit is to view and investigate the extent on the roll-out of bulk water supply and sanitation interventions made by the Department of Water and Sanitation within UMkhanyakude District, King Cetshwayo District (formerly uThungulu District) and UMgungundlovu district municipalities.

During the oversight visit, the committee will visit Pongolapoort (Jozini) Bulk Water Scheme, Greater Mthonjaneni Bulk Water Scheme Phase 2, Ngcebo Bulk Water Scheme and Umshwati Bulk Water Scheme Phase 3.

In addition, the committee will also investigate the extent of water and sanitation interventions at various state health care intuitions.
